Christ Church's New Rector. Tuesday evening of this week the vestry of Christ Church will hold a meeting for the purpose of electing a successor of the ate Rev. Mr. Ranger. Several names have been mentioned in connection with the vacancy, but the vestry will not make them public. Until the minister elected sends his acceptance of the post the name selected will not be published. After a new minister is secured, it is likely efforts will be renewed for a consolidation of Grace Cathedral and Christ Church.

No offers have been received so far for the Monument Place property, but some of the vestry believe the Board of Trade will purchase it later.

BATTING AND FIELDING AVERAGES IN THE WESTERN LEAGUE.

President Johnson Promulgates the Official List-Indianapolis Players Do Not Head Various Positions.

President Johnson, of the Western League, yesterday made public the official batting and fielding averages of the Western League players for the last season. While the Indianapolis players do not head the list in a great many instances, they became champions on account of their great team work. The list is as follows: WESTERN LEAGUE CLUB STANDING.

RECOGNIZED THE HORSE'S HIDE. John H. Milburn Charged with Stealing the Animal. Horace K. Buskirk, one of the day telephone operators at the police station, distinguished himself yesterday by making his first arrest since appointed to his position. During the afternoon two men came into Superintendent Colbert's office and told him of a peculiar robbery of which they were the victims. They said a man had stolen a horse belonging to one of them, after which he killed the animal in order to dispose of the carcass to the fertilizing company. They had good reasons for suspecting a certain man, who it was believed disposed of stolen horses in this manner. They said they went to the fertilizing company and recognized the hide of the stolen horse. The pro-prietors of the fertilizing company told them they had agreed to sell the hide to a Mr. Hass, who deals in welts, as the man who brought the carcass asked them to dispose of the hide for him. They said they would send the welt to Hass, and when the man returned they would give him an order on Hass for the money. The two men went to Hass and told him of the circumstances, asking him when the fellow called not to asking him when the fellow called not to pay him, but to have him arrested. Shortly after the men left the station house Mr. Hass called and notified the su-perintendent that the man who held the order for the money was on the street below, and asked that he be arrested. The man, John H. Milburn, had been induced to accompany Hass to the station house by a strategem, but, after waiting a moment or two for Hass to join him, became sus-picious and started up the street. Horace Buskirk was on the sidewalk, and Superintendent Colbert directed him to follow the fellow and arrest him. Buskirk captured his man at washington street. A MAN WITH A MANIA. Sends in False Alarms to the Fire De-

The fire department was called last evening to the Ingalis Block in answer to a telephone message which said there was a fire on that corner. The department was mable to locate a fire nor find any evidence of there having been one. The only report which can be made is "false clarm." The department has been greatly annoyed recently by these false alarms, which come in over the telephone, and it is believed that some person has a mania for seeing the department respond or else is moved by a malicious spirit. The telephone exchange is in no wise to blame. The police are endeavoring to locate the gullty person who is causing so much trouble.

DR. CASTOR'S AFFAIRS

THE WIFE OF THE COUNTY CORONER SUES HIM FOR SUPPORT.

Claims Her Property Went to Give Him a Medical Education-Demands $200 a Month.

Through the medium of the Marion county courts the public is to have an insight into the family affairs of Dr. H. C. Castor, the county coroner. Late yesterday evening the county coroner was notified that he was the defendant in a suit for support, brought by his wife, Gertrude Castor. In her complaint Mrs. Castor does not spare details. She says she was married to Dr. Castor in 1888 and has one child, Byron Elder Castor. The complaint describes certain real estate which the plaintiff avers she owned at the time of her marriage, and on which she placed a $600 mortgage immediately after their marriage. This amount she turned over to the defendant to hold in trust. A short time later this property was sold for $2,380 and the proceeds turned over to the defendant. By means of this money, Mrs. Castor says, her husband secured a medical education and equipped his office with furniture, books and instruments necessary in the practice of his profession. While he was attending medical college the money realized from the sale of the property was used to pay their living expenses, she says. The allegation is made that Dr. Castor some cherished a plan for the straightening of Fall creek, carried a petition signed by a number of property owners to the County Commissioners. The petition requested the board to change the channel of the stream at the expense of the county. The board declined to adopt the suggestions offered and Mr. Darnell carried his petition to the Circuit Court. Judge Brown, after hearing both sides of the case, decided that he had no jurisdiction and threw the petition out of court. He held, however, that the petitioners should stand the cost, which footed up about $500. These expenses have never been paid and the question came up again yesterday in the form of another petition by Mr. Darnell. He asked the commissioners to submit the matter to John R. Cliners ers to submit the matter to John R. Clin ton, deputy clerk of the Circuit Court, authorizing Mr. Clinton to release the propthorizing Mr. Clinton to release the prop-erty owners from all hisbility in the case in the event that he should find that the costs assessed do not constitute an equit-able claim against them. Commissioners Hunter and Harding signed the petition, but Commissioner Reinecke refused to at-tach his signature. He contends that the property owners should pay the costs and does not propose to recede from his posi-tion.

His Superior Officer Permitted a Confidence to Be Betrayed. Patrolman Shortridge, whose resignation the Board of Safety accepted last week, was guilty, as stated in the Journal, of tion. In the case of John Lux the report arresting a salcon keeper, James Maley, sr.

Shortridge was informed by a citizen living near Maley's saloon, that there was a constant violation of the liquor law at titioned off from the saloon. James Hamthe place. Obtaining evidence the patrol-man made the arrest and the case came up in Police Court. Shortridge had prom-ised the citizen that his name should in no wise be mentioned in the case. It seems clear violation of the law. Ben Kersting, that one of the police captains ascertained washington street, has built a the name of the citizen and in the face of the subordinate officer's obligation to protect the citizen who had given the partition in his room, partly of wood and protect the citizen who had given the partly of wire. THE INJUNCTION PERMANENT.

Judge Harvey Confirms His Action in County Printing.

Judge Harvey, of the Superior Court, yesterday made permanent the injunction restraining the board of County Commissioners from awarding printing contracts prior December. The court held that the law of 1875, providing for contracts of this character, covered the present case. He refused to sustain the charge of the plaintiffs that the board was about to act in bad faith. The printing contracts will be let by the new Board of Commissioners.

FIRST STEP IN HERRON WILL CASE, Plaintiffs Ask to Prosecute Their Action as Poor Persons.

Judge Brown, of the Circuit Court, yesterday heard argument on a motion in the Herron will case, in which the plaintiffs asked to be allowed to prosecute their claims against the estate as poor persons. The action was taken to avoid the statute which requires the plaintiffs to file a bond. The court will decide on the motion some time this week. The Monarch Receivership. In the Superior Court yesterday the Monarch Grocery troubles were up for final adjudication. Two weeks ago the Union Trust Company was made receiver of the Monarch Grocery Company, which corporation about the same time became the Monarch Supply Company. The receiver brought a suit to replevin the goods transferred to the new company. This suit was yesterday dismissed, the receivership vacated and the keys handed over to the Monarch Supply Company. An amended complaint was at company. An amended complaint was at once filed by Severin, Ostermeyer & Co. against the Monarch Supply Company, making Messrs. Bush and Curtin, with their wives, party defendants. Then the Union Trust Company, under a new order, was appointed receiver to take and hold the goods of the concern. The proprietors of the Monarch Grocery or Monarch Supply Company were cited by Judge McMaster to show cause why the receivership should not show cause why the receivership should not continue during the pendency of certain

It was understood, so it is now claimed, that the transfer of the Michigan plant should the transfer of the Michigan plant should include its capital stock. Murphy and Boswell were to pay $5,000 for the plant and patents, $2,000 of this amount being paid over in cash at the time of the purchase. Yesterday suit was brought by Murphy and Boswell to have the contract set aside. They aver that the defendants failed to turn over the capital stock of the Michigan plant, and that they found it covered with indebtedness. The plaintiffs further seek to recover the $2,000 advanced when the sale was made.

The laintiff and defendant are rival dealers and plaintiff and defendant are rival dealers and the complaint charges that the latter, with a malicious purpose in mind, referred to the plaintiff as a "d-d thief," and further charged plaintiff with having accumulated his property dishonestly. The plaintiff avers that he has heretofore enjoyed the respect and esteem of a great many good citizens, and by the slanderous assertions of the defendant his reputation has been seriously damaged. He demands $10,000.

Wilkins Libel Suit. John D. Wilkins brought suit, in the Circuit Court, yesterday, charging Lovis Hyman with slander and demanding $3,000 damages. Wilkins avers that the defendant, in a recent conversation with James Maiden, used the following words in a reference to the plaintiff: "He is now in the penitentlary for chicken stealing." The plaintiff shows that he was never before charged with the crime of larceny.

Joseph Beeler's Damage Suit. A three-thousand-dollar damage suit was filed yesterday by Joseph Beeler, who says he was struck by a Lake Erie & Western train while crossing the track at Fifteenth street. He claims permanent injuries and charges the railway company with negli-disgraced himself by his open and notorious conduct with one Daisy Hall. Nov. 22, it is alleged, the defendant deserted, without cause, his wife and child, leaving them without means of support. The plaintiff shows the court that $200 a month is required by her for the support of herself and child and asks that the defendant be required to pay her that amount. The defendant will be asked to return the plaintiff's certificate in the Order of Equity, in her and to settle on her a sufficient annuity for her wants during life.

CAL DARNELL'S PETITION

Relates to Costs Assessed Against

Fall Creek Petitioners.

Some time ago Cal Darnell, who has long cherished a plan for the straightening of the same kind, with the states that recently there have been other inquiries of the same kind, with the same result, and the Texas authorities stated that described in the deed that Jarvis had received and so informed him.

The letter addressed to the Governor states that recently there have been other inquiries of the same kind, with the same result, and the Texas authorities as that described in the described in of them as remain outside of the penitentiary, has been transferred to Indiana. The co-operation of the Indiana authorities in running the combination to earth is asked on the ground that not only does the protection of the citizens of the State demand it, but that the perpetration of these frauds is working great damage to the land department of Texas, every investment seeker regarding a Texas land title with suspicion.

SCREENS IN SALOONS

CITY ATTORNEY GIVES POLICE OPIN-IONS IN NUMEROUS CASES.

Saloon Keepers Using Partitions to Violate the Nicholson Law-Card Rooms Adjacent to Barrooms.

Superintendent Colbert has had reports prepared by the sergeants and patrolmen concerning saloons containing partitions, and has submitted the same to the city attorney for an opinion as to whether the Nicholson law is being violated.

W. A. Woodward, 680 West Washington street, had a partition seven feet high across one end of his saloon. City Attorney Curtis holds this to be a clear violashows there is a solid partition, making a separate room. It is held no violation exists unless liquor is sold in the room parlin, 312 Blake street, was found building a partition seven feet in height across the rear end of his saloon. The patrolman refused to put the citizen on the stand as a witness and Judge Cox began a tirade against the police for arresting the saloon keeper. Disgusted at such a state of affairs in the Police Court the patrolman resigned. He would probably have been dropped by the Democratic superintendent had he not taken this course. ness in his place, and no liquor is sold ness in his place, and no siquor is sold in the restaurant, the law is not violated. Gran Bros. run a saloon at 384 Blake street. In the room adjoining the saloon a cigar stand is maintained, and customers are permitted to play cards on the premises. The two rooms are separated by a stairway, but there is a door communicating between them. It is held the law is not being violated if drinks are not sold to be drunk in the card room. A number of other cases are covered by the reports, and the opinions are covered by the reports, and the opinions the attorney thereon, in some of which is held the law is being violated, but that it is not in others.

Where the opinion of the city attorney shows the law is being violated the saloon men have been notified the cause for complaint must be removed. Superintendent Colbert says the saloon men have all complied with this order.

BLACK PEPSIN BUTTER. Much of the Fraudulent Stuff Sold on the Market.

The city sanitarian had some samples of inferior butter brought to him yesterday by the sanitary officers, who found the stuff on the market. Dr. Ferguson made an examination of the samples and found them deficient in fat material. It is made by the pepsin process, that is by making a curd from very ordinary milk by the use of black pepsin. The stuff is more properly a cheese than butter, but color and flavor are added. The sanitary officers found much of this material on sale outside the market house. It was offered to the pub-lic from wagons, which added to the claim of the venders that it was pure country

The alleged butter has been selling at 15 cents and 18 cents a pound and the comlaints from the venders of genuine butplaints from the venders of genuine but-ter attracted the attention of the health officers. Farmers who sell the genuine ar-ticle say it cannot be sold for less than 29 to 25 cents a pound, hence they can-not compete with the inferior article. The latter is sold at wholesale at 6 and 7 cents a pound. The inferior can be told by its odor, for it has a cheesy smell, especially after it is a few days old. Dr. Ferguson says there it nothing injurious Ferguson says there it nothing injurious about the inferior butter, but it is a cheat and people in buying it are imposed upon. Prosecutions are to be made so soon as Dr. Ferguson can complete this investiga-Between Messrs. Ketcham and Gowdy.

The statement attributed to Attorney-general Ketcham in an afternoow paper in which he charged Chairman Gowdy, of the blican State committee, with making his campaign for re-election on committee funds is vigorously denied by Chairman Gowdy. Captain Gowdy states that if Mr. Ketcham or anyone else is laboring under the impression that he is making his campaign at the party's expense they are mistaken, "It is true," said he, "that I have been going over the State and I propose to continue to visit my political friends, but I am paying my own expenses and I shall continue to do so." Chairman Gowdy expresses confidence that he will be re-elected. HIS WOUNDS PECULIAR. William Jones Claims He Was dentally Shot While Hunting years of age, was taken to the City Hospital yesterday afternoon suffering with wounds in his foot caused by the discharge Formidable Liquor Remonstrance of a shotgun. He said he and two companions went coon hunting Friday night south of town, and after they had hurted an hour or so a rabbitt was scared up, when one of his companions, Charles harmon, asked for his gun, intending to kill the rabbit. When Harmon handed the gun back to him the trigger was still cocked, a fact which he falled to notice. He says they walked on a few steps, when he accidentally shot himself by striking the trigger of the gun against his coat sleeve.

The physicians at the hospital know nothing of the man and are inclined to doubt his explanation as to how the accident occurred, as they say the wounds doubt his explanation as to how the acci-dent occurred, as they say the wounds have the appearance of having been in-flicted by a gun shot fired from the front instead of from above. Jones was taken to the City Hospital from the Bluff road south of the city. He claims that James Miller, No. 985 South Meridian street, is one of his
